

Avian Disease, Diagnosis and Treatment

14 November 2006

- 09:00 – 09:30      Registration – tea/coffee and biscuits
- 09:30 – 09:40      Introduction by the Chair:
Dr Ian Brown, Veterinary Laboratories Agency, Weybridge, Surrey, UK.
- 09:40 – 10:10      Current developments in AI diagnosis.
Dr Ian Brown, Veterinary Laboratories Agency, Weybridge, Surrey, UK
- 10:10 – 10:40      Title to be confirmed
Professor Richard Jones, Faculty of Veterinary Science, University of Liverpool, UK
- 10:40 – 11:10      Avian Mycoplasmosis and advances in diagnosis
Dr Roger Ayling, Veterinary Laboratories Agency, UK
- 11:10 – 11:40      Mid-morning break: tea/coffee
- 11:40 - 12:10      Campylobacter – a pain in the gut for humans but not chickens
Prof. Diane Newell, Food and Environmental Safety Programme, Veterinary Laboratories Agency, Weybridge
- 12:10 – 12:40      A Highly Sensitive Neutralization Assay For Avian H5N1 Influenza A Virus Using Retroviral Pseudotypes [A].
Dr Nigel Temperton, Mrc/Ucl Centre For Medical Molecular Virology, University College London
- 12.40 – 13.40      Lunch
- 13:40 - 14:10      Title to be confirmed
Becki Lawson, Wildlife Veterinarian, Institute of Zoology, Zoological Society of London, UK
- 14:10 – 14:40      Bird Schistosomes In Wildfowl In Central Europe
Professor Petr Horak Department of Parasitology Faculty of Science, Charles University, Czech Republic
- 14:40 – 15:10      Effect of vaccination on the horizontal transmission of *Mycoplasma gallisepticum
Dr Anneke Feberwee, Poultry Health Specialist Animal Health Service, Poultry Health Centre, The Netherlands
- 15:10 – 15:40      Afternoon Tea/Coffee
- 15:40 – 16:10      Newcastle Disease Virus
Dr Liz Aldous, Veterinary Laboratories Agency, Surrey, UK
- 16:10 – 16:40      Title to be confirmed
- 16:40 – 17:10      Title to be confirmed
- 17:15              Chairman's summing up & Close.